July Devotions Honoring Saint Anne

SAINT ANNE is the grandmother of our Lord Jesus, mother of the Blessed Virgin Mary, wife of Saint Joachim, father of the Blessed Virgin Mary and secondary patroness of the Diocese of Norwich. Devotions to Saint Anne will be on Mondays of July immediately following the 8 am Mass with blessing with the relic of SAINT ANNE. Many turn in prayer to Saint Anne with all their needs and intentions. Here at St. Joseph Church the statue of SAINT ANNE is in our Shrine Room. The statue was a gift to our parish by Fr. Michael Gajewski (assistant pastor) and his Mom Mary Gajewski in 1962. You may visit the statue of SAINT ANNE and light a votive candle either before or after Mass especially this month of July!

A word for your spirit...

by Valerie Dziengiel

When I said my prayers to God today, I spoke with Him as well.

I asked Him why people shied away from honoring His Will. He told me that the gifts He gave to us were intended to bring Him glory.

He said He even sent His Son to help us complete our story. And then, I said, why isn't it clear enough for all of us to understand.

He said, my child, then spread My word that salvation is at hand . . .

for all of those who are willing to follow My command.
