

SAINT JOSEPH

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH
NORWICH, CONNECTICUT

JANUARY 28TH, 2024 — THE 4TH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Moses spoke to all the people, saying: "A prophet like me will the LORD, your God, raise up for you from among your own kin; to him you shall listen. This is exactly what you requested of the LORD, your God, at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, 'Let us not again hear the voice of the LORD, our God, nor see this great fire any more, lest we die.' And the LORD said to me, 'This was well said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kin, and will put my words into his mouth; he shall tell them all that I command him. Whoever will not listen to my words which he speaks in my name, I myself will make him answer for it. But if a prophet presumes to speak in my name an oracle that I have not commanded him to speak, or speaks in the name of other gods, he shall die.'" — Deuteronomy 18:15-20

Feast of the Presentation of the Lord...

The Feast of the Presentation of Lord is celebrated 40 days after Christmas on February 2nd every year. In ways, this Feast celebrates the meeting between the Jewish Covenant and the New Covenant. Joseph and Mary fulfill the tradition of the Jewish Covenant by presenting their first born son with a sacrifice of two turtle doves. The New Covenant is realized as Jesus, the new temple of God enters the ancient temple and is recognized by Simeon and Anna, Luke 2:22-40.

Because Jesus is the "light of the world," this feast is also known as Candlemas and traditionally includes of the blessing of candles as well as a candlelight procession.

A Candle Loses None of Its Light When Lighting Another Candle (New or Old)...
