

SAINT JOSEPH

ROMAN CATHOLIC CHURCH

NORWICH, CONNECTICUT

OCTOBER 20TH, 2024 — 29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” – Mark 10:45

Saint John Paul II, Pope

“It is Jesus you seek when you dream of happiness; he is waiting for you when nothing else you find satisfies you; he is the beauty to which you are so attracted; it is he who provokes you with that thirst for fullness that will not let you settle for compromise; it is he who urges you to shed the masks of a false life; it is he who reads in your hearts your most genuine choices, the choices that others try to stifle.

It is Jesus who stirs in you the desire to do something great with your lives, the will to follow an ideal, the refusal to allow yourselves to be grounded down by mediocrity, the courage to commit yourselves humbly and patiently to improving yourselves and society, making the world more human and more fraternal.”

To the priests and deacons of the Diocese of Norwich, the consecrated religious sisters, those who attended the burial following Mass at our Sucholet Family Plot in St. Joseph Cemetery, Norwich; and for the delicious and bountiful Funeral Luncheon and assorted Polish and other desserts following the Cemetery. THANK YOU ALL for the many beautiful cards and notes, Masses, beautiful flowers sent to us and your continued prayers for the eternal repose of her soul. May MOM rest now in the peace of Christ! Old Testament And Catechesis

Join us virtually on Tuesday, October 29th, 7 - 8pm as we delve into the richness of the Old Testament and its importance in Catechesis. Participants will learn how the narratives, teachings and prophecies of the Old Testament can deepen our faith and understanding of God's covenant with humanity. We will discuss effective ways to incorporate these elements into catechetical settings, making scripture accessible and relevant for all ages. Our speaker, Gina Czerwinski, has ministered within the Catholic Church for over 25 years, serving at retreat centers, shrines, and youth-serving organizations as well as on the parish and diocesan levels.
